

Quarterly Issues and Program List

WFXR

2nd Quarter 2017

Pursuant to the disclosure requirements in 47 C.F. R. 73.3526(11)(i), and during the quarter referenced above, this station provided information to its viewers regarding the following significant issues, including:

Education	Children/Youth
Employment	Legislature
Health/Healthcare	Community
Business	Environment
Crime	Public Safety
Cultural	Technology
Women's Issues	Politics
Consumer Issues	Transportation
Legal Matters	Government
Housing

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration	Title of Program	Narrative Description
27.1	Education	10:00pm	4/1/17	125 secs.	Evening News	Governor Terry McAuliffe comes to Virginia Tech to speak with undocumented students about immigration. Fifty students from schools across the commonwealth spoke with the Governor - who has been pushing for an easier path to citizenship during his time in office. Governor McAuliffe spoke with students known as "Dreamers" on the Virginia Tech campus. W-F-X-R's Becky Shumar spoke with McAuliffe - about the immigration issue and how it affects people in the commonwealth.
27.1	Youth	10:00pm	4/4/17	165 secs.	Evening News	Cyber bullying is a growing problem. Electronic bullying doesn't have age limits, but it generally effects people under the age of 17. Digital bullying is on the rise in Bedford county. According to a student group - Sheriff's deputies get 5 reports every week. As WFXR's Clay Ostarly reports - students are taking action to prevent it.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Employment	10:00pm	4/5/17	120 secs.	Evening News	Help wanted in Botetourt County – Ballast Point Brewery is opening this summer and they're looking to fill 175 jobs. Today we spoke with an economic developer in Botetourt County about what this job creation means to our area.
27.1	Legislature	10:00pm	4/6/17	87 secs.	Evening News	Victims of sex abuse and domestic violence, are getting more support, after state officials learned thousands of rape kits were untested and still sitting on shelves. AS WFXR Capitol Bureau reporter Evanne Armour explains, the Governor signed two bills to create more efficiency in investigations and to help victims hide from their abusers.
27.1	Health	10:00pm	4/9/17	133 secs.	Evening News	If you're feeling anxious, overwhelmed or annoyed at work, you're not alone. Many of us are feeling stressed out. That can mean losing sleep, packing on the pounds and even losing your cool on the job and at home. WFXR's Bill Wadell tried out some stress busting tips in tonight's Virginia at work.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Community	10:00pm	4/10/17	120 secs.	Evening News	There is a debate over what to do with the Old Blacksburg High school. Some people want the town of Blacksburg to buy it and use it for recreational space. But money could be standing in the way of that idea. A developer has outbid the town by about 700-thousand dollars. Now the County Board of Supervisors will have to choose who to sell the school to? WFXR's Kristen Eskow joins us live in Christiansburg. She sat in on a meeting tonight where neighbors got to weigh in on the idea.
27.1	Business	10:00pm	4/11/17	115 secs.	Evening News	Beer is booming in Virginia. Right now Governor McAuliffe is giving his best sales pitch in DC to bring more beer business to the area. Jonathan Costen talked with the governor about its economic impact.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Legislature	10:00pm	4/13/17	200 secs.	Evening News	From the War on Terror to immigration reform, lawmakers in Washington are getting ready for a battle over ideas and morals. President Trump will need to pull the republican party together to accomplish his goals. He is getting some support from Congressman Bob Goodlatte. Goodlatte stopped by Good Day Virginia this morning to talk about war, foreign affairs and a bill he passed to help protect children.
27.1	Environment	10:00pm	4/14/17	135 secs.	Evening News	First tonight, the firefight continues in the Alleghany Highlands. Hundreds of acres scorched by a wildfire that continues to grow. The fire has burned more than 18 hundred acres in Rockbridge County. The fire line has been expanded in the Goshen Wildlife Management area near route 39. WFXR's Kristen Eskow spoke with crews fighting the fire.
27.1	Community	10:00pm	4/17/17	105 secs.	Evening News	Roanoke City has turned down the building of a new apartment development at the intersection of Brandon Avenue and Main Street. WFXR's Becky Shumar is live in the newsroom.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Employment	10:00pm	4/18/17	257 secs.	Evening News	Here in Central and Southwest Virginia the question isn't where the workers come from it's more a question about skills they have. Many companies that are hiring are not looking for college graduates. They are looking for skilled workers that simply aren't around. As WFXR's Bill Wadell shows us there is a shortage of skilled labor.
27.1	Crime	10:00pm	4/20/17	135 secs.	Evening News	Experts say 1 in 4 college age women and 1 in 16 men experience sexual violence on campuses. Although there's a nation-wide push to raise awareness about the growing problem. Some students say if they were assaulted they wouldn't feel comfortable reporting it. WFXR'S Paris Holmes is live at Hollins University where students are working to change the stigma about reporting sexual assaults.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Public Safety	10:00pm	4/23/17	220 secs.	Evening News	There are flash flood warnings in the area tonight. We are monitoring creeks and rivers as rain continues to fall across the Virginias. Some streams like this one in Spanishburg are starting to over flow. We have team coverage of the rain. John is monitoring conditions in the pinpoint weather center, but we start with WFXR's Kristen Eskow live in the New River Valley where creeks are rising fast.
27.1	Crime	10:00pm	4/24/17	250 secs.	Evening News	In the last few weeks law enforcement agencies have found credit card skimming devices attached to gas station pumps. Many times customers don't notice the skimmers and it may take days, weeks or months to find out your bank account has been compromised. So for the next couple of weeks WFXR is teaming up with the Better Business Bureau to help you protect against it. Alexan Balekian talked with the Roanoke BBB's President and CEO about how to arm yourself against common scams.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Public Safety	10:00pm	4/25/17	165 secs.	Evening News	Flood warning on the Dan river. After a 5 day down pour, things are starting to dry up. But the river is still rising tonight. It may get as high as 27 feet before the water starts to crest. That's considered major flood stage and emergency responders are on standby. The weather caused problems all across the viewing area. As WFXR's Clay Ostarly reports, the rising water has Danville residents watching closely and businesses are breaking out the sandbags.
27.1	Employment	10:00pm	4/30/17	136 secs.	Evening News	Dress for success. It's not just a phrase. What you wear determines how people in the workplace perceive you. And the perception you give plays a key role in your success. Wearing the wrong outfits can be a distraction and even sideline your credibility. WFXR'S Bill Wadell has tonight's Virginia at Work.
27.1	Cultural	5:00am	4/3/17	150 secs.	Morning News	Virginia Tech officials say they want a more diverse employee base. The Annual Women of Color in the Academy National Conference aims to do just that. WFXR's Paris Holmes explains how it's an opportunity for women to empower each other as they grow in their profession.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Technology	5:00am	4/4/17	113 secs.	Morning News	In Franklin County there are some homes that dont have access to high speed internet. Right now county officials may be willing to invest in building a broadband network for faster service. WFXR's Kristen Eskow is speaking with county leaders about a survey getting a lot of attention.
27.1	Health	5:00am	4/5/17	120 secs.	Morning News	A majority of Virginians are overweight. According to the state's website, in 2014 the Commonwealth's obesity rate climbed to 20 th in the nation. One area organization is working to change that. This week is National Public Health Week and the West Piedmont Health District is offering a number of services. Sophia Borrelli joins us live in studio with all the details.
27.1	Youth	5:00am	4/6/17	180 secs.	Morning News	There's a new statewide 4-H program that is improving AgLife for kids. The 4-H grows program partners with the Virginia cooperative extension to offer hands-on learning experiences in the Ag industry.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Business	5:00am	4/10/17	115 secs.	Morning News	HHGregg isn't the only retailer that's struggling. Many large anchor stores across America are finding it hard to stay afloat. Fox's Victoria Criag explains why technology could be the answer to their economic setbacks.
27.1	Women's Issues	5:00 am	4/12/17	137 secs.	Morning News	This next story has moms around the Commonwealth fired up. A mother ran into some trouble after she tried to breast feed her baby at a shopping center in Richmond and what happened next is causing an uproar as security tried to stop her from breast feeding. She recorded the experience and shared it on social media.
27.1	Politics	5:00 am	4/14/17	125 secs.	Morning News	Virginians will head to the polls in November to select a new governor. But first the parties have to pick their candidates last night the Commonwealth's republican candidates for governor faced off on the stage at Liberty University. Our capitol bureau reporter Evan Armour was there as the candidates sparred over the issues.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Politics	5:00am	4/18/17	100 secs.	Morning News	The race for governor in the Commonwealth is one that many around the country will be eyeing this November but it's not the only state job that has people talking the options for attorney general could end up being hotly contested.
27.1	Consumer Issues	5:00am	4/19/17	130 secs.	Morning News	A Richmond woman is fighting to get her money back after she says she signed a lease and paid a month-and-a-half in rent, only to find out her new apartment was infested with bed bugs.
27.1	Business	5:00am	4/24/17	180 secs.	Morning News	The research is in and managers are saying that they spend about 11 hours a week on meetings. That meeting time could be the reason why some are having to work late or come in early.
27.1	Community	5:00am	4/25/17	125 secs.	Morning News	More than 120 local non-profits in the New River Valley are working to raise money this Wednesday. They want everyone to give big in this annual event. But the non profits are also more than happy to take even the smallest donation.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Legal Matters	5:00 am	4/26/17	115 secs.	Morning News	Virginia's electoral districts were drawn seven years ago by the republicans who controlled the general assembly at the time. But it has been a controversy since the beginning. One group says the redistricting was illegal because it grouped minorities together to dilute their political power. A judge disagreed and now the fight is on its way to the state supreme court.
27.1	Transportation	5:00 am	4/27/17	99 secs.	Morning News	Plans are moving forward to get rid of a dangerous stretch of road in Bedford County. People who drive on route 460 in Montvale say the curvy highway has a reputation. VDOT wants to remove the s-curve in the eastbound lanes.
27.1	Consumer Issues	10:00 pm	5/1/17	258 secs.	Evening News	It is becoming all too common that scammers are stealing the identity of a child. They target children due to the lengthy time between when the child's identity is stolen to the discovery of the crime. In fact – more than 140,000 cases of identity theft is committed against children every year according to Federal Trade Commission in a recent study. WFXR's Alexan Balekian teams up with the BBB to give tips on how parents can keep their kid's identities safe.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Education	5:00 am	5/2/17	129 secs.	Morning News	One of the greatest challenges of teaching history is making the events of the past come alive to students today. In Blacksburg, Virginia Tech students and faculty have found a new way to do just that. Their solution was one of 80 different projects unveiled at the Creativity and Innovation Day.
27.1	Politics	10:00 pm	5/4/17	115 secs.	Evening News	Democratic candidates in the Governor's race – squared off at Virginia Western Community College. Ralph Northam and Tom Perriello answered questions about health care changes, taxes, education, and gun control. Both candidates support free Community College for people in the Commonwealth. They just disagreed on how to pay for it.
27.1	Crime	10:00 pm	5/8/17	160 secs.	Evening News	MS-13...it's a gang that started in Los Angeles and quickly spread across major cities in the U.S. But now, the gangs trail of blood and crime has made it to smaller communities...including some right here in central and southwest Virginia. One of our communities is coming together tonight to try and keep the gang out. WFXR's Paris Holmes is in Bedford County tonight. And Paris, we've reported on murders here involving gang members...what can be done to stop the spread of violence.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Business	10:00 pm	5/9/17	115 secs.	Evening News	The annual Scott Farm's Strawberry festival gets underway this weekend, but are the strawberries as ready as we are? They started blossoming early this year-- thanks to a very warm February. But now-- Mother Nature-- is hurting progress. WFXR's Clay Ostarly - - talked to a farmer-- worried that the rain could destroy his crop.
27.1	Education	5:00 am	5/10/17	200 secs.	Morning News	A majority of parents believe kids should start learning about personal finances between 5 and 8 years old-- THIS according to a study by JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT U-S-A. The earlier a child is introduced—the easier it is for them to understand money’s role in our society. Which is why volunteers with Junior Achievement give of their time—to teach our youth.
27.1	Children/ Youth	5:00 am	5/11/17	180 secs.	Morning News	Whether it's learning how to make something with plants or becoming a junior master gardener-- youth in the 4-H program in Montgomery county are learning all about the importance of gardening. Joining us this morning to discuss what programs are offered are Michelle Dickerson – the 4-h Extension Agent for Montgomery County—along with Emma Lucero and Shuray LeMaire – two students in 4-H.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Business	10:00 pm	5/14/17	166 secs.	Evening News	Every Sunday night we take time out to talk about improving business, being a better boss and figuring out – What Drives You- Tonight, it's all about what you drive to work and how local leaders are keeping up with rapid changes in the auto industry. Bill Wadell's here with Virginia at Work.
27.1	Community	10:00 pm	5/15/17	145 secs.	Evening News	There's a new food truck in town and it's giving people easier access to fresh food. Today LEAP unveiled its newest mobile market truck. It will make stops around town so people can get their hands on locally grown goods. Especially o those living in communities where access may be limited. WFXR's Lauren Taylor spoke with people who say this mobile market helps ease the burden of traveling to find fresh food.
27.1	Children/ Youth	10:00 pm	5/16/17	170 secs.	Evening News	A 4-year old boy is dead after shooting himself – at a home daycare. This tragic accident has parents questioning what they can do to make sure their kids are safe. WFXR'S Bill Wadell has been looking into who oversees day cares to make sure they are safe - and not violating any laws. Bill found out that Virginia is one of the lowest ranked states when it comes to child care regulations.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Children/ Youth	10:00 pm	5/17/17	385 secs.	Evening News	New research shows-- the drug problem is spilling over into our schools like never before. The biggest worry for parents-- used to be underage drinking and tobacco smoking. But these days-- the drugs at school-- are a lot harder-- from Adderall to help preform in class - - to using steroids-- to perform better on the sports field. In the past three years-- in fact---Roanoke County Police have arrested a little more than 200 students-- for using, selling, and possessing drugs on school grounds.
27.1	Education	10:00 pm	5/18/17	255 secs.	Evening News	These days--elementary students are learning more than traditional reading, writing and math. Now they also learn the basics of creating computer software and apps. It's called Coding. It involves writing the instructions that make devices like robots to operate. And it's being taught as early as pre-K.
27.1	Transportati on	10:00 pm	5/18/17	95 secs.	Evening News	Residents in one Roanoke neighborhood are afraid a construction project has put them on the road to frustration. Crews have started the second phase of the lengthy project – to improve 10 th street. It is a busy, but narrow street that connects Williamson Road and Orange Avenue.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Crime	10:00 pm	5/24/17	135 secs.	Evening News	Due to recent violence - the Roanoke city mayor and city council are taking to the streets - to combat crime. They're hosting a "Neighborhood Solidarity Walk" tomorrow - with community groups, churches and schools.
27.1	Children/ Youth	10:00 pm	5/25/17	148 secs.	Evening News	Bullying at school – a big concern in the Roanoke Valley. A social media post about an alleged violent incident at a middle school spread like wildfire. WFXR’s Paris Holmes met with community leaders and upset parents – who organized their own news conference.
27.1	Children/ Youth	5:00 am	5/24/17	192 secs.	Evening News	In this morning’s 60 years of Junior Achievement—we’re discussing the three pillars of Junior Achievement—financial literacy, workforce readiness and entrepreneurship—with a focus on workforce readiness.
27.1	Technology	5:00 am	6/1/17	118 secs.	Morning News	Later today Governor McAuliffe is set to sign new legislation, making Virginia the first state to allow delivery robots on sidewalks. Capitol Bureau Reporter Evanne Amour has a look at the device that could soon be at your front door.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Politics	5:00 am	6/2/17	160 secs.	Morning News	The Virginia Primaries are less than two weeks away, and the race for governor is heating up. Hillary Clinton is not the only democrat seemingly waging war on President Trump. Two of the candidates are basing their democratic campaigns more on the President rather than the Commonwealth. Fox's Peter Doocy takes a look at how the democratic race is too close to call.
27.1	Community	5:00 am	6/5/17	113 secs.	Morning News	The peacemakers continue their efforts to curb violence in Roanoke. As the temperatures heat up and the days get longer, there tends to be an uptick in crime. WFXR's Lauren Taylor went out with the group as they canvassed neighborhoods in Northwest, in an effort to show they're looking out for the people.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Education	5:00 am	6/6/17	180 secs.	Morning News	When going to college there are certain majors girls fear to try because the field is dominated by men. In an effort to change that, more than 80 area middle school students will spend a day this summer at Virginia Tech. There they will learn about dozens of different career opportunities proving they can do whatever they set their minds to. Tomorrow, rising eighth graders from public middle schools in Montgomery County and Roanoke City Schools will have the opportunity to see what goes on in various areas of the university's Facilities Department, by touring construction sites, learning how Hokie Stone is harvested, and observing campus utility systems in operation.
27.1	Health/ Healthcare	5:00 am	6/7/17	90 secs.	Morning News	The number of teens giving birth continues to plummet in the U.S., this according to the Journal of Pediatrics. But births among women over the age of 40 are climbing. WFXR's Sophia Borrelli joins us live in the newsroom to discuss a new study about the health risks associated with pregnancy and age.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Children/ Youth	5:00 am	6/8/17	108 secs.	Morning News	In your AgLife report students at a high school in the tri-cities area of Tennessee are learning to farm while growing food for local nonprofits. It's all thanks to a new program. Allie Hinds shows us how teachers and staff are working to equip the next generation of students to grow and sustain their own food.
27.1	Government	5:00 am	6/9/17	238 secs.	Morning News	It's all anyone's been talking about for days now. Reality TV and political drama taking center stage in Washington, as former FBI Director James Comey testified for the first time since being fired on Capitol Hill. His testimony is the culmination of months of swirling questions and rumors about his firing, the Russia investigation and whether Trump pushed Comey to end a probe into Michael Flynn. Our Fox News Chief Intelligence Correspondent Catherine Herridge joins us this morning with the very latest.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Business/ Industry	5:00 am	6/12/17	120 secs.	Morning News	Boones Mill is once again revving up their town with their annual car and truck show. Dozens of vehicles lined the streets of downtown over the weekend. The show benefits the restoration of the town's historic train depot. It's one of several accomplishments the town has achieved over the past year when it comes to revitalization.
27.1	Government	5:00 am	6/13/17	130 secs.	Morning News	In Franklin County-- A big controversy brewing-- on where to build a new fire department. The Glade Hill Volunteer Fire Department-- wants to build it where they say-- crews can be respond Quickly members of the homeowner associations in the area say the Village Town Center would be a better location.
27.1	Legal Matters	5:00 am	6/14/17	60 secs.	Morning News	Rolling Stone Magazine is agreeing to pay more than a million and a half dollars to settle the high profile lawsuit with a University of Virginia fraternity.
27.1	Employment	5:00 am	6/15/17	75 secs.	Morning News	Looking for a job may be as easy as logging into your favorite social media site. The sites we use to interact with friends-- now making it easier to land a new gig.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Legal Matters	5:00 am	6/16/17	115 secs.	Morning News	A jury deadlocked and a mistrial denied. Bill Cosby's lawyers asked for a mistrial once they learned the jury couldn't come to a verdict. The judge denied the motion and ordered the jurors to start deliberating again this morning. Jurors have been undecided for more than 40 hours. Andrea Constand is accusing the man once known as America's Dad of drugging and sexually assaulting her more than a decade ago. Cosby claims it was consensual.
27.1	Crime	5:00 am	6/19/17	155 secs.	Morning News	A difficult Father's Day for a Roanoke man - grieving after his teenage son was shot multiple times. Roanoke Police say the shooting happened shortly after midnight Thursday - in the 23-HUNDRED Block of Tuckawana Circle Northwest. It was there authorities found 17-year-old Nickalas Lee suffering from gunshot wounds. He later died at the hospital. No arrests have been made Lee's death comes just weeks after he graduated high school.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Housing	5:00 am	6/20/17	140 secs.	Morning News	Keeping families close when they need it the most that's the motto of Ronald McDonald House Charities of Southwest Virginia. When a child is sick and in the hospital, those at the house work to take away some of the stress for parents. By providing a home away from home, walking distance from the hospital. The makeover is underway, it's all part of their adopt a room program. WFXR's Lauren Taylor explains how the community is pitching in to help families in need.
27.1	Education	5:00 am	6/21/17	91 secs.	Morning News	It's easy for kids to forget all about what they learned in school during the summer months. As they're focusing on having fun. In this mornings 60 years of Junior Achievement, we're highlighting an online program to help students become more financially liberate.
27.1	Health/ Healthcare	5:00 am	6/22/17	194 secs.	Morning News	We go to Capitol Hill where senate republicans will be crossing their t's and dotting their l's on their new draft of the American Healthcare Act. Fox Chief Congressional Correspondent Mike Emanuel gives us an inside look to what is in the new plan.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Consumer Issues	5:00 am	6/27/17	130 secs.	Morning News	For many in rural areas, access to high-speed internet is hard to come by. Efforts to fix the problem are drawing bipartisan support in what's been a sharply divided Congress. WFXR's Washington Brie Jackson tells us ways federal officials are working to improve access-- and make internet service more affordable for certain communities.
27.1	Children/ Youth	5:00 am	6/28/17	210 secs.	Morning News	In this morning's 60 years of Junior Achievement we're discussing the importance of integrating technology and blended learning to reach more of our youth. Joining us to discuss the ongoing efforts is Michelle O'Connor, President and CEO of CMR Institute, a woman who has been ahead of the curve when it comes to blended learning.
27.1	Women's Issues	5:00 am	6/29/17	115 secs.	Morning News	It's a growing problem here in the Commonwealth, moms using drugs while pregnant. Last year along more than 800 babies in Virginia experienced complications after being exposed to drugs while in the womb, and effects can last long after birth.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Immigration	5:00 am	6/30/17	139 secs.	Morning News	Two bills targeting illegal immigrants-- are heading to the Senate for approval. thursday the House passed Kate's Law- named after a San Francisco woman killed by a man who had been deported several times. Virginia Congressman Bob Goodlatte introduced the bills. President Trump's administration says these proposed laws are essential to protect U-S citizens - opponents say the legislation hurts communities and instills fear. WFXR'S D.C. Correspondent Brie Jackson SPEAKS with people on both sides of the debate.
27.1	Employment	10:00 pm	6/4/17	161 secs.	Evening News	Love them, hate them, or simply tolerate them. We all have unique relationships with our bosses. Being a leader in today's non-stop, high pressure workplaces can be tough. WFXR's Bill Wadell has the four tell tale signs of a bad boss and the tips to turn things around.
27.1	Legislature	10:00 pm	6/5/17	96 secs.	Evening News	Beginning next month Roanoke City residents will have new rules to follow when it comes to restraining pets. Tonight, City Council voting to amend the tethering restrictions, limiting the amount of time you can leave your dog tied up.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Business	10:00 pm	6/6/17	117 secs.	Evening News	Downtown Roanoke restaurant owners say they're concerned about a decline in business over the last few years. The manager of a 100 year old business-- says sales have been down by hundreds of dollars per day. They blame parking problems for the drop in business and told WFXr's CLAY Osterly-- the city's plan charge people- - to park downtown-- will only hurt his business more.
27.1	Education	10:00 pm	6/7/17	135 secs.	Evening News	Opinions divided over a plan to close two middle schools and build a new consolidated school for students in Pulaski county. School administrators say it's time to replace two aging schools. Tonight the superintendent and architects unveil their plans to close Pulaski and Dublin middle schools and build a centralized middle school to replace the two. The decision on whether to build and consolidate could end up on the ballot for voters in November. WFXR's Bill Wadell joins us live to show us why the plan has some parents pitted against each other.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Safety	10:00 pm	6/14/17	135 secs.	Evening News	In Roanoke, rain and thunder not enough to keep people from panhandling along Electric Road. Tonight, city police are using a new ordinance in a crackdown to keep people off concrete or grassy medians. City police say the new rule is all about safety. But some believe it unfairly targets people in need, asking for help or groups trying to collect money for fundraisers.
27.1	Environment	10:00 pm	6/15/17	178 secs.	Evening News	Mother nature causes havoc in parts of the viewing area tonight. Heavy rain caused flash flooding in several regions. People had to be pulled from their cars in downtown Roanoke as water quickly took over the streets. Cars were stranded along Salem Avenue. In addition to the flooding, high winds from the thunderstorms took down trees and the fallen limbs also brought down power lines.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Business	10:00 pm	6/17/17	96 secs.	Evening News	Is a popular farmer's market in jeopardy? That's the concern as plans move forward to revitalize downtown Salem. Salem leaders requested proposals from developers to make the most of several downtown properties. We've learned one developer is interested in the space above the farmer's market and that has some people concerned. Now there's a facebook page all about protecting the farmer's market.
27.1	Consumer Issues	10:00 pm	6/21/17	78 secs.	Evening News	The Consumer Product Safety Commission says around 80 thousand people go to the emergency room every year with injuries from a lawn mower. The Amputee Coalition says each year an average of 6 hundred children are involved in lawn mower accidents that require the amputation of a hand or a foot. Just last summer a 76-year-old man died in Roanoke County after his lawn mower flipped over and pinned him underneath.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

27.1	Community	10:00 pm	6/25/17	90 secs.	Evening News	Landowners in Southwest Virginia say they're ready to fight. This after learning the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission or FERC says the mountain valley pipeline will have limited negative impact on the environment. Those landowners have been protesting for three years. The 300 mile pipe line would cut through 6 counties in Southwest Virginia.
27.1	Crime	10:00 pm	6/29/17	65 secs.	Evening News	Just before 8 last night in Pulaski police say a car hit a child riding a bicycle, stopped for a few seconds, and the took off. It happened at the intersection of South Washington Avenue and Fifth Street. Witnesses told police the car was a silver Honda Civic, simiar to the one you see on your screen. Witnesses and the victim were only able to get part of the car's plate number, 8-7-V. WFXR'S Bill Wadell went out to the neighborhood today to get more information.

/

The station also aired the following public service announcements during the instant quarter:

Type of Issue	Duration	Title or Narrative
Veterans Help	:60 & :30	Strength Over Silence
Health	:60, :30 & :15	Just Add Water
Health	:30	Autism Awareness
Children/Youth	:60, :30 & :15	St. Jude Gave Us Hope

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Type of Issue	Duration	Title or Narrative
Volunteerism	:30 & :15	Meals on Wheels
Environment	:30 & :15	Turn Things Around
Financial Assistance	:60 & :30	Get Student Debt Answers
Adoption	:30 & :15	Adoption From Foster care
Children/Youth	:60, :30 & :15	Learning & Attention
Hunger	:60 & :30	Wishful Thinking
Public Safety	:30	Be the Change
Public Safety	:60, :30 & :15	Buzzed Driving Prevention
Public Safety	:60 & :30	Texting and Driving Prevention
Red Cross	:30 & :15	Summer Biomed Urget